Colma Hog Ranchers Face Charges

Officer R. Beecher Is Bitten On Arm Quelling Melee

Attempts of local police officers to quell a disturbance at Dino's Tavern, 7123 Mission street, Wednesday evening, July 25, resulted in Officer Roy Beecher having to go to Alemany hospital for treatment for a bite received in the melee; breaking of the glass in the Honor Roll in the hallway of the City Hall; and payment of $50 fine for disturbing the peace and being drunk in a public place as well as $7.50 to replace the broken glass in the Honor Roll by William T. Jones jr. of 6925 Mission street.

This series of apparently unrelated events started at 5:45 p. m. July 25, when Officer Roy Beecher was informed that Edward Dendler, bartender at Dino's Tavern, was having trouble with two men. Beecher went to the place and when he entered found Jones and Bell Eddings, owner of the tavern, in an argument.

Dendler had ordered William T. Jones jr. and Thomas B. Jones also of 6925 Mission street, out of the tavern, as the younger Jones had allegedly been bothering one of the patrons.

The younger Jones is alleged to have told the bartender it was none of his business, and was in

Youngster Hit By Car Sunday

Responding to a phone call that a small child had been hit by an automobile on Hillside boulevard at 3:28 p. m. Sunday, July 29, Officers Dean Wood and James Welsh of the local police department found that Robert Goodare of 2829 Geary street, San Francisco, had been hit by a car driven by Lysle Bower of 418 Spruce street, San Francisco.

The accident occurred in front of the Mission Bell Auto courts apartments facing on Hillside boulevard just south of Gambetta street. The youngster who was visiting his grandparents at the Mission Belle courts, was only slightly bruised.

Wood took the boy to Mt. Zion hospital in the local ambulance. Bower was not held.

Leo Bottini Is Killed In Action

Word was received Wednesday, July 25 by F. Bottini, 201 Price street, that his son Private First Class Leo Bottini, 20, had been killed in action on Okinawa, June 13.

Leo, a radioman in the infantry of the U. S. Army, had been in the service ten months, seven of which were overseas.

Before entering the service he was interested in the poultry business with his father at their establishment 7339 Mission street.

He is survived by his father and two sisters Mary and Sylvia.

A requiem high mass was celebrated for the repose of his soul Monday, July 30 at the Holy Angels church, Colma.

Stork Outraces Ambulance To Deliver Baby Girl

The stork outraced two ambulances to a local home early Friday morning, July 27, and delivered a husky, eight pound, one ounce baby girl to Mrs. Louis Thiebaaut, III, wife of Navy Seabee, now on overseas duty, and daughter of Mrs. Lottie E. McLaughlin of 180 Irvington street, at the latter's home while the mother was without medical aid and unattended except by members of the immediate family.

At about 3 o'clock Friday morning, Mrs. McLaughlin called the Alemany hospital for an ambulance, which was dispatched by officials of that hospital. The driver, a new man, got lost and couldn't locate the McLaughlin home until more than an hour later. When it had not arrived at 4:07 a. m., Mrs. McLaughlin called the Daly City police department, and Officer Dean Wood immediately responded with the local ambulance. In the meantime, the Alemany hospital ambulance had arrived—but the stork had beaten both ambulances.

Mrs. Thiebaut and the newly arrived daughter were taken to Mary's Help hospital by the San Francisco ambulance, where both are now doing fine.

The newcomer is the second daughter of the Thiebauts, an elder daughter now being 21 months old. The father, now on duty in the Pacific with the Seabees, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Thiebaut II, of 1801 29th avenue, San Francisco.

This week Mrs. McLaughlin complimented members of the local police department highly on the courtesy and consideration shown both her and her daughter during their trying emergency. At this time, Mrs. McLaughlin said she would most probably have called the local department first, except for previous instructions given her daughter by navy officials to call the Alemany hospital for ambulance service and in emergencies.

Here Is Breakdown of Fay Imp. Co.'s Edgewood Terrace Paving Contract

Last week we reported that Fay Improvement Co. of San Francisco was awarded the job of resurfacing Hillside boulevard through the new Edgewood Terrace subdivision and improvement of sidewalks, curbs and gutters by the Daly City Council at its July 23 meeting. This company's bid of $12,865.86 was more than $500 lower than that of the other bidder W. G. Ebright of Burlingame.

We were crowded for space in last week's issue, consequently had to leave out the breakdown of the Fay Improvement Co. bid. However, we feel that many of our members will be interested in seeing this breakdown, so here it is:

Description of Work	Amount
760 lineal feet—10 inch reinforced concrete pipe storm sewer	$ 1,178.00

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE FILES COMPLAINTS AGAINST HOG RANCHERS

The Colma hog ranch situation which has been stewing for some time, popped off with a bang late last week when the San Mateo county district's attorney's office filed 24 complaints against hog ranchers of that area, in Judge R. A. Rapsey's court in South San Francisco. Friday, July 27, Judge Rapsey issued 41 warrants for the arrest of ranch owners and operators named in the complaints.

Some of the complaints were for individual owners, others were joint complaints against two or three owners and operators, and a few listed as many as four or five co-defendants. One complaint was filed against each separate ranch.

The complaints allege the ranchers operated commercial hog ranches without permits from the board of supervisors between July 1 and July 25, 1945.

Under provisions of a county ordinance passed in 1944, the ranchers have been unable to secure these permits. That ordinance made it mandatory that ranchers must have approval of county health department and planning commission before supervisors could issue permits. The county health department has refused to give its approval because of alleged unsanitary conditions at the various ranches.

Defendants named in the complaints, and for whom warrants have been issued by Judge Rapsey are:

Dominic and Tillio Olcese, Colma; Albert Casentino and L. Donardi, Daly City; Thomas Callan, Colma and John Petroni, South San Francisco; Callan alone, named in a second complaint; Henry Suhling, and Alex Dabliso, San Francisco and John Migliore, Colma; Louise Fogoli, and R. Rossi, Colma; Dave Arata, Daly City and Michael Ferrando, San Francisco; L. Martinelli, Daly City and Albert Bertucci, Colma; Michael Barsotti, Daly City and Pete Lara, Colma; C. Massoni, G. Boschi and G. De Mattei, Colma; A. Del Grande, San Bruno; V.

Traffic Accident Causes Damage To Two Automobiles

When Margaret H. Videau, 635 Bosworth street, San Francisco, driving a 1939 Pontiac sedan, stopped for the traffic light at the Mission-Market streets intersection Monday afternoon, July 30, about 4:30, her car was rammed in the rear by a 1934 Chevrolet sedan driven by Julius Nelson of 363 San Diego avenue.

Considerable damage was done to the front of Nelson's car while the Videau car suffered damage to the rear bumper.

Revolver And Box of Groceries Stolen From Car

While the owner was visiting at the George Mohrweiss home, 344 North Parkview avenue between 10 and 10:30 Saturday night, July 28, an unknown party or parties stole a revolver and box of groceries from the automobile belonging to Sergeant Donald Mitchell as the car, a 1936 Chevrolet sedan was parked in front of the Mohrweiss home.

The gun was a German make Walther P 38, nine millimeter, serial No. 1712, with a six-inch barrel and heavy plastic grips. It shoots a shell about the size of a .38 calibre revolver. The gun, an automatic, was in a brown leather holster, and contained an empty clip.

The groceries included several cans of milk (Nestle's brand) and several cans of baby foods of various kinds.

Sergeant Mitchell reported his loss to local police at 10:45 p. m. Saturday.

Unknown Man Found Unconscious On Villa Lawn

Identity of a man, probably a merchant seaman, was still puzzling local authorities at 11 a. m. Thursday, over 24 hours after he had been found unconscious on the lawn of the Villa Sanitarium.

Summoned to the Sanitarium just after 7 o'clock Wednesday morning, Officers Edmond Heim and August Benassini found the man unconscious and frothing at the mouth and nose. Taken to Community hospital in the local ambulance by James Smith and John Kapor, the man did not regain consciousness until 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

He refused to give his name but said he had been living with Clarence Jules at the home of Walter Branson, 1118 Gough street, San Francisco.

Shortly after his arrival at the hospital, the man's stomach was pumped by attendants, who suspected poisoning but no trace was found. A spinal puncture, about 24 hours old, was found.

The man of dark complexion with black hair is about 28 to 30 years old, five feet ten inches in height, and weighs between 175 and 190 pounds. He was wearing a gray suit coat, khaki shirt and pants, brown shoes and black sox. An initial S on the belt and a merchant seaman's button were found, but no papers or other means of identification. He had a scar on his left knee and one on the right rib section.

San Francisco police were checking the man's identity at the time the Record went to press.

Cars Collide Monday Morning Near Top of Hill

A Ford coupe driven by Helen M. Batchelder of Vallejo and a Plymouth sedan driven by Harry A. Biddle of 219 Lake street, San Francisco, collided on Mission street, approximately 60 feet north of the Wellington avenue intersection, shortly after 7:30 a. m. Monday, July 30. No one was injured in the collision, and only slight property damage was incurred.

Officers August Benassini and Roland Petrocchi of the local police department investigated the incident, when Biddle reported to the local office that Miss Batchelder had refused to give him any information concerning herself after the accident.

Aching Tooth Causes Trouble

Thomas Cordelos of 209 Oliver street will go to a dentist the next time he wants a tooth pulled.

Anyway, Wednesday, July 25, Cordelos decided to pull an aching tooth himself, but found himself unable to stop the bleeding. At 11:20 p. m., Mrs. Cordellos called Officers Roy Beecher and James Welsh and told them Cordelos was unable to either stop the bleeding or get a doctor.

The officers took him to Alemany hospital, where attendants treated the bleeding, and then returned him to his home.

"Surrender or Die"

The Japanese—and especially the Jap militarists—now know exactly where they stand. No longer can they bleat that we have not indicated what "unconditional surrender" means. We have told them.

And what we have told them dashes all hope of the Nipponese army and navy cliques to squirm out of this war with enough left to start building for another one. It has also been made clear that Japan will be stripped of virtually all territory outside of her four principal islands and that her future industrial production will be limited strictly to peacetime items.

Any hope that they might escape occupation by Allied forces was also blasted by the declaration that we will occupy "points in Japanese territory." The Japanese people, however, were assured that they would not be enslaved but would be permitted to live peacefully.

What effect the announcement will have on the masses in the enemy homeland cannot readily be determined. But there seems little likelihood that the militarists will permit the nation to yield since they now know that they—the militarists—have nothing to gain by surrender.

The fact that the future status of the Emperor was not mentioned in the statement indicates that he may be allowed to remain. To lessen his influence over the people, however, emperor worship may be banned.

The Japs now have a clear choice either to "surrender or die." And they ought to know by this time that we aren't kidding.

The Churchill Defeat

The overwhelming defeat of Winston Churchill in the British general election marks the passing from the international scene of one of the most courageous and colorful figures in British history. It leaves Marshal Stalin as the lone remaining member of the original Big Three.

There seems little doubt that most Americans would have preferred to see Mr. Churchill continued as Prime Minister not only because he was generally well liked in this country but because we had become accustomed to dealing with him. There is no reason that we can foresee however, why we should not get along just as well with Mr. Attlee.

Some persons might say that the rejection of Mr. Churchill by the British people is gross ingratitude for his magnificent service during the desperate days of the war. But there is another way of looking at it. No nation can afford to continue a leader in office no matter how thankful that nation may be to him for past service, if it feels that someone else can now do a better job. And apparently that is how the people feel about the man who has led them for the past five years.

The change in governments is not expected to have any effect on British foreign policy since both parties were in agreement on this score. The election was fought out strictly on domestic issues.

In spite of his defeat Winston Churchill will go down in history as one of the greatest of Britain's great Prime Ministers.

Kaiser Cars

Henry Kaiser's announcement that he will build a "large, light and lowpriced" automobile came after repeated hints of such an eventual development. But the fact that he plans to get into actual production by early next year was quite a surprise. Ten test models of the new "Kaiser" have already been given thousands of miles of testing. Two later and improved models are due to be completed in a few weeks. In this enterprise the West's Number One industrialist has joined forces with Joseph W. Frazer, board chairman of Graham-Paige Motors Corp. A medium-priced car named the "Frazer" will be produced in Detroit as part of the new set up. In his recent visit to the coast Frazer declared that this area should rival Detroit as a car manufacturing center within the next decade. That the Pacific Coast can support an automobile industry of its own is no longer a matter of doubt. The West's millions of residents with more money in their savings accounts than ever before make up a tremendous market. The Kaiser-Frazer Corp. plans not only to make the most of this market but also to ship their cars to the Far East and through the Panama Canal to the East Coast. The "Kaiser" will not sell at $500 as has been rumored, but will be less than $1,000.

MEMORIAL BUILDING CALLS FOR DISCUSSION AND PLANNING BY ALL

By Ted Shipley

Interest in War Memorial buildings in San Mateo county has risen to fever pitch—not only in Daly City, but in other cities of the county as well. San Carlos already has selected a site for its memorial building, that city council on July 12, accepting the gift of a V-shaped corner of the American Legion property at Laurel and Bush from San Carlos Post 585, American Legion.

Local organizations are rapidly completing their lists of delegates to the local meeting, August 29 at the city hall. Veteran Firemen's association last week appointed two of their members to attend that meeting. Colma-Vista Grande Aerie No. 1848, Fraternal Order of Eagles named two delegates at its regular meeting Thursday night, August 2.

Assistant Fire Chief A. J. Bodien spoke before American Legion Post 410, Thursday, July 26 and Old Glory Post 2044, VFW the following night. Both groups promised to name delegates to the August 29 meeting in the near future.

Meanwhile local barbers, merchants, clerks, butchers and others belonging to organizations and unions in San Francisco, having many members in Daly City have queried Bodien as to whether they would be welcome at the coming meeting.

Bodien said, "Any local citizen who is interested in a War Memorial here may attend the meeting, whether he belongs to an organization or not. Local members of your groups are doubly welcome."

Some of our readers may have misunderstood some of our remarks in last week's Record. So we would like to briefly sketch the past history of this War Memorial plan.

First—the $75,000 which is the county's share towards building the memorial, has, as yet, only been allocated by the county planning commission. No definite plan towards appropriating the money has been adopted by the board of supervisors. The catch holding back the supervisors final approval seems to be a misunderstanding as to the tax rate necessary to raise the money. The supervisors are said to have first understood this rate to be a mill on a $100, but later discovered it to be a mill on a dollar.

However, proponents of war memorials believe definite action by the cities for which memorials are planned will go a long way towards securing approval of the supervisors, and the latter will be able to devise some means of securing the money, without "hiking" an already high county budget too much.

During the past week, we have talked to what we believe to be a fair cross section of the city's residents in regard to their views on the memorial and where it should be located. This group includes some of the city's most prominent men and political leaders.

These people are definitely in favor of the city adding $75,000 to the like amount allocated by the county planning commission. They also are in favor of erecting a building that will amply serve the city of the future, both as to utility and location. They seem to be almost unanimously in favor of such a building as we outlined in last week's Record.

Approximately 60 to 70 per cent of these persons favor the Marchbanks park site for the memorial. Some of the more visionary, foresee a hondsome "Civic Center" at that site in a few years to come, including the War Memorial building, a city playground with tennis courts, horseshoe pits, swings, slides etc. and a greatly improved baseball park. Additional stands and improvements at the baseball park are already approved by the local council, and are now awaiting the time when materials and labor to install them may be secured.

The other two possible sites mentioned last week do not seem to meet the approval of these people. Their reaction on the old Vista Grande school property between Mission street and Santa Barbara avenue, just north of Parkview avenue, and adjoining the number two firehouse is to leave this property for possible future needs for city hall, city library etc. In this connection they point out that present site of the library may within a few years become so valuable for business property that it will be necessary to move it to another location. When this time comes, they say the old Vista Grande school property is the most logical site.

As for the old Daly City Quarry site, they say:

"If we're going to have this War Memorial building, let's have it someplace where it can be seen, not tucked away in some odd corner." They know what's brewing along residential development lines in this area, and realize that if present plans of promoters go through, residential areas fully as large as the present Daly City will be developed to the south and west just outside the present city limits.

"When these developments are completed, we will want to annex this area to Daly City," these persons say. "And in order to sell that idea to the people living there, we must have something to show them — something really worth while."

El Carmelo Parlor No. 181, N. D. G. W. Installs Officers

Wednesday evening, July 18 the Blue room of Masonic temple was the scene of a very impressive installation of officers of El Carmelo Parlor No. 181, NDGW.

The beautifully decorated hall was bedecked with graceful basket of hydrangea and candelabras. Inell and Ilene Baker, the two teen-age daughters of the newly installed president, preceded the officers' formal entrance and lit the candles in the candelabras. The officers in white formals entered the candle-lit room.

The installing officer of the evening was Grand Trustee Dorothy Donofrio assisted by Past Grand President Evelyn I. Carlson and a group of girls from Menlo parlor.

As Mrs. Margie Baker stood at the altar her two daughters entered carrying huge bouquets of talisman roses which they presented their mother.

As the president was escorted to her station, Hattie Kelly rendered the vocal selection "Margie." The newly installed president in her acceptance speech spoke of her hopes and aspirations and thanked Dorothy Donofrio who acted as chairman for the evening and past president, Christine Hulme, who has nominated her for each office in the parlor. She then introduced members of her family, as well as many members of the "Women of the Moose" of which she is a past officer.

The following officers were installed for the ensuing term: Margaret Steele jr., past president; Marjorie Baker, president; Irene Littlewood, first vice-president; Lillian Colloty, second vice-president; Thelma Ferretti, third vice-president; Betty Czewerenski, marshal; Hattie Kelly, recording secretary; Lucille Wohler, financial secretary; Julia Romer, treasurer; Anne Biggio, Dorothy Donofrio, and Fredercka Volkman, trustees; Marie Hogerheider, inside sentinel; Dorothy Linehan, outside sentinel.

Following the installation a delightful program of vocal and piano selections and speeches were enjoyed by all. A very unique gift presentation was made by three members of El Carmelo's formal drill team to retiring Deputy Thelma Locatelli of Menlo parlor. The parlor also presented gifts to past president, Marge Steele; grand trustee, Dorothy Donofrio; president, Marge Baker; and retiring treasurer, Louise Eliasen. Senior past president, Christine Hulme presented junior past president, Adele Wood with the emblematic jewel of the order.

Delicious refreshments were enjoyed in the downstairs banquet hall. The banquet room looked very beautiful with 20 individual card tables with handmade luncheon cloths, place cards and lighted green candles. The main table at which 34 were seated was attractively arranged with lace cloths, a lovely center arrangement of mirror, candles and white pottery filled with beautiful pansies.

The new president had made favors for the main table and presented her officers with a lovely set of beaded combs each.

On Monday evening, July 23 a large group of El Carmelo members journeyed to Burlingame to witness the installation of officers of Burlingame parlor. Again on Friday evening a large group visited San Bruno parlor for installation ceremonies. Deputy grand president of San Bruno parlor is Evelyn Bemis, a member of El Carmelo parlor.

New Arrivals

Recent births in the Daly City and Colma area include a daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Sanford L. Sturdevant, 143 Peoria street, July 20; Mr. and Mrs. George F. Bruening, 3170 San Jose avenue, July 19, a son; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond M. Foster, Colma, July 20, a daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Purser, 501 Templeton, July 25, a son; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pistoni, Colma, July 28, in South San Francisco hospital, a son.

Hogs Enjoy Eating Hay

Hogs particularly like bright alfalfa or clover hay, and feeders have found good protein value in such feed. Brood sows make use of legumes twice a week to advantage. Young pigs jump around with delight when they get a ration of this kind.

Doubleheader Is Again Slated At Marchbanks Park

The usual Sunday doubleheader will be played at Marchbanks park Sunday afternoon, August 5, with Gordon Realty and Regal Pales slated to take the field at noon, and Longshoremen crossing bats with Bear Photo Service at 2:30.

The Bear Photo Service nine is the one managed by Johnny Maretti and is not to be confused with the Bear Photo team playing the San Francisco Recreation leagues and piloted by Charlie Norry.

Maretti's Bears have won two of their last three games, all against the strongest home teams of Northern California. They defeated Santa Rosa Merchants 7 to 2 and Sureka 3 to 1, being nosed out by Boyes Springs 9 to 7. Their last appearance locally was on May 6, when they nosed out Teamsters 10 to 9 in an exciting game.

Either Galassi or Peret will pitch for the Bears, with the remainder of the lineup including Augie Coronel, Minafo, Venezia, Falconi, Zappini and Pellegrini, all well known to local fandom.

Manager Harry Maloney of the Longshoremen has announced several changes in his starting lineup for Sunday. Ray Stagnaro, who held Hurley Marines hitless in the last three innings last Sunday will pitch, with Ray White behind the plate.

Mike Dalton will move over to second base, with Eddie Rose shifting into right field and Frank Guglimetti coming in to handle the shortstop position. "Lefty" Fieber will again be at first base with Ray Spina at third. This week Maloney was trying to locate two new outfielders and expected to have them in uniform Sunday. He is trying to bolster this weak spot in his lineup preparatory to playing some of the fastest East Bay nines in coming weeks.

The Gordon Realty-Regal Pale contest will be a regular second half game of the Baseball Managers' Summer League. Gordons aare undefeated in their first two starts in the second half and will have their regular lineup on the field Sunday with Ted Coffey on the mound and Bobby Payne behind the log.

Other Gordon stars include shortstop and field captain Murphy, Bill Boyce, leading hitter of the first half, Elmer Clow, Lou Fucile and Kelly.

Regal Pales have been upset in their first two second half games, but the management this week was busy in an effort to strengthen the club, and expects to have a lineup on the field Sunday that will give the fast-stepping Realtors a real battle.

Mills Field Reports Theft To Sheriff's Office

G. W. McDonald assistant manager of Mills Field last week reported to the San Mateo County sheriff's office, the theft of a trunk containing jewelry and clothes valued at $3900 from the baggage room of the United Air Lines depot at the field sometime between 2:30 a. m. July 6 and 7:30 a. m. July 7. The trunk is the property of Mrs. J. Kahn of Beverly Hills.

It contained a string of Ada pearls valued at $1000, a string of culture pearls worth $200, a gold ring set with diamonds and rubies and worth $265, other jewelry valued at $144.95 and ten dresses and two suits, McDonald said.

Kenneth and Wilbur Fellows Are Both Home on Furloughs

An unsuspected happy family reunion is taking place at the Fellows residence, 163 Vista Grande avenue. Their two sons Kenneth and Wilbur are home on furloughs; Wilbur arriving from Camp Roberts in mid-July for 17 days and Kenneth, Tuesday, July 31 at 3:30 a. m. from Camp Beale after serving overseas since January of this year.

A year has lapsed since Mr. and Mrs. Horace Fellows have seen Kenneth, and 18 months since the two brothers have seen each other.

A member of the Black Cat (13th Armored) division, Kenneth is entitled to wear the European theatre of war ribbon, expert infantryman's medal with cluster, and two bronze stars for participation in two major battles including one in Ruhr Valley pocket and the other in Bavaria.

He will be home until September 1 at which time he will return to Camp Beale thence to Camp Cook, in Southern California.

Four Alarms Are Answered By Fire Department

Local fire departments answered four alarms during the past weekend, which included two false alarms Friday night, a grass fire shortly after noon Saturday, and a fire in a pile of boxes under the steps of the grocery and apartment house building at the corner of School street and Station avenue Sunday evening.

Companies 2 and 6 answered the call from box 615 Sunday evening at 6:25 that sent them to the Castle Garden Grocery, School street and Station avenue. A pile of boxes and rubbish under the rear stairway of the building and leading to the apartments above the grocery had caught fire, apparently from a carelessly discarded cigarette. A neighbor had discovered the fire, and already had it well under control with a garden hose when the departments arrived.

The grass fire at 12:15 Saturday noon was at Paul and Bismark streets, with Companies 1 and 6 answering the alarm.

At 9:56 Friday night, Companies 1, 2 and 6 answered a false alarm from box 33 at Mission and Como streets, and at 10:30 the same night, Companies 1, 2 and 4 responded to another false alarm —this time from box 17 at the Stockton Lumber Co.

NEWS OF OUR MEN and WOMEN IN UNIFORM

Among Northern California soldiers slated to arrive in New York City, today (August 2) on the liner Queen Mary is Pvt. John W. Farrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Farrow of 51 Gambetta street.

Private Farrow enlisted in the armed services January 6, 1942, and after technician training at Shepherd Field, Wichita Falls, Texas and Scott Field, Ill., he was graduated at the latter field with technician's rating, July 26, 1942.

Transferred to Hamilton Field, California, he underwent further training there, including one month at Mills Field until November 10, 1942, when he left for New York City to go overseas. He went across in December, 1942, and was based in England where he was attached to the 78th Fighter Group of the 82nd Fighter Squadron as a radioman for two years.

Late last year he was hospitalized for some time, after which he returned to duty as a technician with the ground forces of the Army Air Corps in England.

On November 6, 1944, Private Farrow married Miss Pamla Holt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lesley Holt of Cambridge, England. The present Mrs. Farrow graduated from Cambridge university with high honors a short time before the marriage.

Prevented from accompanying her husband back to the states at present, because of strictness of army regulations, she will join him here as soon as army authorities permit private transportation.

Staff Sergeant Henry A. Sernack jr., U. S. Army Air Force, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sernack, 101 Shakespeare street is at present stationed at Keesler Field, Mississippi.

After having completed 34 missions over Germany he returned to this country on May 27 from England.

At the expiration of his 30 day furlough he reported to Santa Ana Airbase redistribution center. Two weeks later he was sent to Keesler Field.

Army Hdqs., POA, Ft. Shafter, T. H.—Pfc. Wallace Bellando, 23, of 45 Shakespeare street, Daly City has been returned to the Continental United States from the Pacific Ocean Areas under the Army's readjustment program.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. P. Bellando of 45 Shakespeare street.

He was processed for return at a personnel center in Pacific Ocean Areas, where Army forces are under the command of Lt. Gen. Robert C. Richardson jr.

Pfc. Bellando came into Army on April 12, 1940 and has been overseas 27 months. He was with U. S. Army, Signal Corps, has been through Attu, Kwauelein, Palau campaigns, and has been stationed on Saipan.

He has been awarded the Good Conduct Ribbon, Asiatic Ribbon, American Defense, three battle stars.

Under the readjustment point system, his score was 85.

Private First Class Russell P. Johnson, 1158 Brunswick street was scheduled to arrive in New York, July 28 on the S. S. Sea Robin and Private Harold L. Ward, 127 Flournoy street was among the group of the Black Cat (13th Armored) division who arrived at Camp Beale, Marysville during the week and are now on 30 day furloughs.

Sergeant Augie J. Gaggero of 33 Alemany street, Daly City, recently received his honorable discharge from the Army at Barnes General hospital, Vancouver, Washington.

He has served three years, seven months of which he served overseas as a radio operator in the infantry. For meritorious service he has been awarded the European Theatre of Operations Ribbon with four battle participation stars, the Purple Heart, the Bronze Medal, the Combat Infantryman Badge, and the Good Conduct Ribbon.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sebastiano Gaggero, reside at 33 Alemany street, Daly City.

LaFayette, Ind., July 28—First Lt. Irene Berniece Brooks, of Daly City, mess and supply officer of a WAC squadron, Drew Field, Florida, is a member of the fifth class of student officers assigned to the Women's Army Corps school for personnel administration at Purdue University. She will return to her command at the conclusion of the two and one-half week course.

Designed to improve the efficiency of women in the Army, the school is unique in the War Department's training program. The course consists largely of lectures on personnel management, Army organization, adult psychology, current history and the utilization of special services and educational facilities of the Army. Approximately half the class time is devoted to seminar groups for discussion of matters pertaining to women in the Army.

Lieut. Brooks attended Santa Rosa High school and Santa Rosa Teachers college. She enlisted in the Women's Army Corps in November, 1942. Prior to her enlistment she was employed by the U. S. Army as a secretary to a medical supply officer. She is the daughter of Mrs. Ellen M. Brooks of 6716-A Mission street, Daly City.

Camp Parks, Calif. — J. M. Hackett, 40-year-old Seabee who won a special commendation for helping repair the boilers on a French aircraft carrier, is on a 30-day leave at his home at 307 Miriam street, Daly City. He will report to Camp Parks for a new assignment.

Hackett, former marine steam fitter for the United States Engineers in San Francisco, recently returned after a year of duty with the Seabees in Hawaii. He is a shipfitter first class.

With The 40th Infantry Division in the Philippines—Sgt. Gerald N. Reposa, son of Manuel S. Reposa, 67 Hillcrest drive, Daly City, astride a Sherman medium tank on Luzon, thought he was riding high when his tank hit two 50 pound aerial bombs.

Reposa, a squad leader in the mine platoon of anti-tank company, 108th Infantry Regiment, in charge of three men, had been assigned the dangerous task of clearing a mountainous road west of Fort Stotsenburg of mines for three tanks.

They were continually hampered by enemy machine gun and small arms fire.

The assignment became more hazardous when the delicate mine detectors failed to function properly close to the tanks.

The mine squad often had to probe for the mines with their bare hands and trusted their eyes in many instances.

On this particular occasion they had been advised the road was clear of mines for about one-half mile.

The squad, riding the tanks, had not progressed more than 50 yards when the lead tank, upon which Reposa was sitting, had its right track blown off when it struck the mines.

Reposa asserted he bounced about seven feet into the air hitting the gun turret in his downward flight.

Further investigation revealed the left track also was resting on two 50 pound mines.

According to Reposa, "A drop of water would have detonated the mines, and then I would hate to think what would have happened."

The crippled tank was pulled to the rear area by the companion tanks.

For this and other action on Luzon and for "outstanding performance of duty and excellent service" throughout the campaign, men of the mine platoon of anti-tank company were commended by Col. Maurice D. Stratta, commanding officer of the 108th regiment.

Reposa entered the service October 8, 1942 and was assigned overseas the following November.

He received basic training in Hawaii and has seen service on Maui, Guadalcanal, Leyte and Panay.

He received campaign stars for participating in action on New Britain, Luzon and Mindanao.

With the 7th Infantry Division on Okinawa, July 30—A veteran of four major Pacific campaigns, S/Sgt. Adolph P. Bertocchi, of Colma, had his closest contact with the enemy during the closing days of the Okinawa campaign.

Dug in for the night under heavy Jap artillery fire, Bertocchi's outfit was on the alert throughout the night for Jap infiltrators. As the dawn came, Bertocchi heard rustling noises in the grass ahead of his foxhole. The sound came nearer and nearer, but because of the tall grass, he could see nothing moving.

Finally the grass parted and a Jap soldier looked the Californian in the eyes.

"I didn't even have to aim at him," Bertocchi said. "He practically crawled down the barrel of my rifle."

Overseas 27 months, he fought through the Attu, Kwajalein, Leyte and Okinawa campaigns.

With the 24th Infantry (Victory) Division on Mindanao—Pvt. First Class Alfred L. Watson, of Daly City, rode in a truck near Davao when suicide-bent Japs sprang from a thicket and hurled a lond mine.

Watson's company of this Victory Division's crack 19th Infantry Regiment, was in a truck convoy bound to embark for the invasion of Samal Island. As the convoy sped down the road two Japs leaped from the underbrush and threw a mine at the lead truck. The explosion set the gasoline tanks afire and hurled blazing gasoline in all directions. The intense heat exploded 500 rounds of ammunition. Bursting mortar shells and grenades scattered blazing fragments of the truck.

Two Jap marines were found dead near the charred wreckage. Many Americans suffered from minor gas burns and bruises. But the invasion of Samal took place as scheduled. Watson is the son of Mrs. Beulah A. Watson, 199 Hillcrest drive.

Shoemaker, Calif. — Frank R. Morales, Ship's Cook, First Class, USN, 27, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Morales, of 449 Hillside boulevard, Daly City, has arrived at the world's largest naval receiving station, a unit of the U. S. Naval Training and Distribution Center, for reclassification and further assignment.

Morales has had 37 months sea duty aboard a battleship operating in the American and Asiatic-Pacific areas.

15th AAF In Italy—After long service in Italy with the 15th Air Force, Capt. James C. Iverson, of 163 Los Olivos avenue, Daly City, will soon return to the United States with the veteran 459th Bomb Group, according to a recent announcement by Brig. General James A. Mollison, commanding general of the 15th AAF.

The veteran group which will receive additional training and equipment before reassignment in the Pacific Theater of war has been serving with the 15th Air Force in Italy for the past 18 months. During this time, the 459th has flown 244 missions against strategic targets in German-held Europe, contributing to the German downfall by the bombing of Ploesti, Vienna, Steyr, Munich and numerous other targets whose loss crippled Nazi resources, supplies, and communications.

After returning to the United States, the 459th Liberator Bomb Group looks forward to carrying its devastating bomb-loads against the last enemy of free nations—Japan.

With The Fifth Army, Italy—Pvt. Edward F. Garibaldi, rifleman, son of Mrs. Adella Garibaldi, 156 1st street, Daly City, has been cited by the 338th Infantry Regiment of the Fifth Army's 85th "Custer" Division and awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge for actual participation in combat against the enemy in Italy.

Standards for the badge are high. The decoration is awarded to the infantry soldier who has proved his fighting ability in combat.

The handsome badge consists of a silver rifle set against a background of infantry blue, enclosed in a silver wreath.

Private First Class Harold Hutchings is home enjoying a 21-day furlough from Liberal, Kansas, where he has been stationed for the past two years. He is at his sister's home, Mrs. Irwin Cameron, 138 Vista avenue.

A dinner was given for him Sunday, July 22, at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Rose Loomis, 3312 San Jose avenue.

Harold, who is a radio operator in the air force ground crew, received his basic training at Sioux Falls, South Dakota where he was stationed for six months.

At the expiration of his furlough he will return to Liberal, Kansas.

He attended local schools and Jefferson Union High school.

Ways with Tomatoes

. . . have no end. Tomatoes are versatile . . . delicious . . . and good for you! Serve them as a soup base, broil them for an entree, toss them in a tangy salad . . . the suggestions below are just a beginning . . .

CREAM OF FRESH TOMATO SOUP

2 lbs. or 6 medium-sized tomatoes
6 tbsps. flour
2 tsps. salt
½ tsp. celery salt
7 cups milk

Wash, peel, and core tomatoes; cut in small pieces. Cook about 5 minutes, or until soft, stirring occasionally. Combine flour and seasonings; add to tomato mixture, blending well. Cook about 10 minutes, or until thickened, stirring constantly. Heat milk; add hot tomato mixture to milk gradually, stirring constantly. Serve immediately. Serves 6, allowing 1½ cups per serving.

TOMATO SANDWICH SALAD

Use two large tomato slices for each salad. Arrange greens on salad plate. Place first tomato slice on greens. Cover with your favorite salad; sea food, chicken, cottage cheese, or mashed or sliced avocado, top with the second tomato slice. Garnish with olives, pickles or radishes and top with generous amount of mayonnaise or 1000 Island dressing.

FRIED TOMATOES

Wash, cut in thick slices firm ripe or green-ripe tomatoes. Dip in seasoned flour. Fry in small amount of hot shortening or drippings about 10 minutes, or until golden brown, turning occasionally.

BROILED TOMATO HALVES

Wash, do not peel, cut in half crosswise, firm, ripe tomatoes. Place on broiler rack cut side up. Sprinkle with salt, pepper, and crumbs, dot with butter or margarine. Place 4 inches from broiler unit. Broil 5 to 10 minutes.

"Fairly Quiet" Is Report On Grand Jury Front

Things have been fairly quiet along the San Mateo county grand jury front the past week, as no really sensational new developments were reported.

Instead, Judge A. R. Cotton and Jury Foreman Glen O. Smallcomb conferred this week on vacations. Judge Cotton will vacation during August, with Smallcomb also being gone for the major portion of the month, which would indicate that no full sessions of the jury are slated until September.

Meanwhile the jury is expected to have two new matters brought to its attention at its next session.

Justice of the Peace Gus B. Risso of Burlingame is expected to be called before the jury at the instigation of Attorney Bush Finnell who has challenged Justice Risso's decision in a recent eviction case.

According to Finnell, Risso failed to hand down a decision until forced to do so by a writ of mandamus issued by Superior Judge Andrew Schottky, and that when he did make a decision, it was contrary to law.

The other new matter taken before the grand jury is the long smoldering Lomita Park sewer quarrel. A letter concerning this dispute is now on file with the jury, Smallcomb said recently.

Meanwhile the San Mateo County Labor Council is very much interested in the grand jury's actions, and will soon determine what action it will take concerning the jury's vice investigation, President John Healy said recently.

The council, which has already authorized a letter to Judge Cotton, protesting lack of an organized labor representative on the jury, has referred its participation in the matter to its executive board. This board is slated to meet Friday, August 3.

Sheriff James J. McGrath and District Attorney Gilbert D. Ferrell may be asked to speak before the council in reference to the grand jury investigation, and the council may even endorse the jury's actions, but these are all problematical, Healey admitted.

Bear Photos Win At San Anselmo

The Bear Photos baseball team, managed by Charlie Norry, well-known local diamond pilot, took a Sunday off from its San Francisco league schedule to travel to San Anselmo last Sunday and take a 7 to 6 decision from the San Anselmo Merchants.

Center fielder De Pucci and shortstop Perez led the Bear Photo attack with two hits each, while Ben Parodi, stellar Jefferson Union High school catcher, who worked behind the plate for the Norry-piloted nine and led off the team's batting order secured one hit. Quinones and McGovern who divided the mound duties for the Bears, permitted San Anselmo batters seven hits.

Fenstermakers Leave For Silver City

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Fenstermaker of 998 Hanover street, left August 2 to spend the next two months at their gold mine near Silver City, Nevada. They expect to return to Daly City in the latter part of September or early in October. The trip to Silver City is an annual event for the Fenstermakers.

Girl Scouts Take Trips To Golden Gate Park

The last two July activities for Girl Scouts, as planned by the leaders' association, were trips to Golden Gate park and Lake Merced.

On July 18 39 girls toured Golden Gate park, taking in the tea garden, Steinhart aquarium, Academy of Science and the museum. Many girls brought sketch books along. The Scouts ate their lunch under the trees at the music concourse.

The leaders in charge for the day were Mrs. Louise Buttle, Mrs. Ethel Saame, Mrs. Lena Banfield, Mrs. M. Prescott and Mrs. J. Calvin. On July 25, the girls who had bicycles met at Theta house and left for their trip to Lake Merced and Fleishhacker's. The Girl Scouts were accompanied by Mrs. Ethel Proschold.

These weekly trips meet with great enthusiasm and it is hoped they will be repeated next year.

Back From Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Olson, 370 Irvington street, have just arrived home from a three-week's vacation at Calpine Lodge in the upper Sierras.

While there they visited Lake Tahoe and Gold Lake.

Police Apprehend Two Youths With Purloined Whiskey

Officers Henry Sunderman jr. and James Welsh of the local police department aided in solving the disappearance of several bottles of whiskey from the Colombo Wine and Liquor Store of 105 Broad street, Ocean View, Saturday night, July 29, when early Sunday morning they picked up two boys who had been sleeping on a hillside near the intersection of Wellington avenue and Hanover street.

Summoned to the scene by phone calls from residents of that neighborhood, the officers found the boys had three partly filled bottles of whiskey in their possession, and that both were badly under the influence of liquor.

At first the boys claimed to have secured the whiskey at a party in the neighborhood Saturday night, but when investigation by the officers showed this to be false, the two youths "clammed up." Local officers then contacted the San Francisco department and learned of the Ocean View robbery, where someone had broken a front window in the store, entered, and taken several bottles of whiskey of the kind found on the boys.

One of the lads then admitted he and several other boys had taken the whiskey from the store. At 3:34 Sunday afternoon, the two boys were released to Inspectors Dunleavy and Johnson of the San Francisco department. The three bottles of whiskey were also turned over to the San Francisco officers.

Firemen Blame Matches - Children In Tuesday Blaze

Companies 1, 2 and 6 of the Daly City fire department were summoned to the home of Mrs. Neville, 79 Hill street at 4:20 p. m. Tuesday, July 31 to extinguish a fire in a bedroom.

Firemen discovered a box of matches alongside the burning bed and surmised that children playing with matches had set the mattress afire. The blaze was extinguished in short order by the firemen, with no damage to the house or any of the other furniture.

Pioneer Resident Passes Away Sunday, July 29th

Daly City lost another of her pioneer residents this week when John Imsand passed away Sunday, July 29, at his home at 40 Goethe street. He had resided in this city for the past 50 years, and was last employed as a guard at the Tubbs Cordage Co. plant in San Francisco.

Since the death of his wife, Katherine, some years ago, he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Freda Christen at the Goethe street address. He leaves in addition to Mrs. Christen another daughter, Mrs. Julia Crane, and a son John Imsand jr. of Palo Alto; a sister, Mrs. Celestine Christen, and three grandchildren, Florence Christen, Kenneth Crane of the United States Army and John Imsand III.

He was a native of Switzerland and a member of the Mutual Aid association.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday, August 1, at 10 a. m. from the W. C. Lasswell & Co. mortuary. Interment was in Olivet Memorial park.

Blood Donors

Paul Williams, James E. Tunstall, and Mrs. James E. Tunstall, Daly City residents, were recent donors at the San Mateo County Blood bank.

It is the second donation for Mrs. Tunstall, and the first for Paul and James E. Tunstall.

Have You Lost Any Ration Books?

During the early part of this week, local police handled a number of reports concerning lost and found ration books.

Monday, July 30, W. S. McCaslen of 127 Whittier street reported that a Number 4 ration book issued to Mrs. McCaslen had been lost about two months ago and had not been found.

The same day, Robert Jones of 181 Los Banos avenue, reported having lost his B gas ration book.

Tuesday morning, July 31, Mrs. Thomas Cordelos of 209 Oliver street, turned three Number 3 ration books into the office, saying she had found them in front of the Saafeway store at Mission and Lawrence streets. These books were issued to William Shelton, Connie and Carol Coursey. The local department notified Connie Coursey at her home, 82-a Canal Apartments, Richmond, Calif., that the books had been found.

S. F. Man Arrested Twice In Week By Local Police

Local police found William Bloom of 3145 22nd street, San Francisco very much a "thorn" in their hair last week, when they were forced to arrest him twice.

At 11 p. m. Friday, July 27, Officers Roy Beecher and James Welsh were summoned to 928 Brunswick street by a phone call from Daisy Gowland residing at that address. When they arrived, they found Bloom in the house, apparently very much under the influence of liquor. Further investigation disclosed that he had broken a window to gain entrance.

Brought before Judge William J. Sweeney the next day, Bloom was released on $10 bail.

Shortly after 6:30 p. m. Sunday, July 29, Bloom was observed to be driving his car in a very erratic manner on Mission circle by Officer Dean Wood. Driving a 1936 Nash sedan, he had turned into that street in a reckless manner, and had driven about 100 feet using both sides of the street, when he killed his engine. The car ran backward into a curb on the west side of the street, when he again started the engine, causing the car to leap across the street, and forcing Wood to drive on to the east curb to avoid an accident.

The officer's investigation disclosed all the windows of Bloom's car closed, and that he had again been drinking. His driver's license was found to have expired July 15.

Wood arrested Bloom and brought him to the local jail, charging him with drunken driving. This time Judge Sweeney set bail at $100 cash or $200 bond, which was furnished and he was again released to appear Friday, August 3 at 2:30, at which time Judge Sweeney will try him on both charges. Meanwhile Bloom's car was impounded in a local garage.

Paul's Fountain Takes 4 to 2 Win From Federals

"Cookie" Pera, veteran moundsman was the individual hero of Sunday's doubleheader at Marchbanks park, as Paul's Fountain took a 4 to 2 decision from Federal Outfitting Co. in the first game and Hurley Marines of Alameda handed the Longshoremen a 9 to 4 walloping in the second game.

Pera, working on the mound for Paul's Fountain, set Federal batters down with seven hits, well scattered, struck out six batters, walked one and hit one. In addition he secured a double, single and walk in four trips to the plate, batting in two of his team's four runs.

Pera was given some in-and-out support by his team. Only one of the Federal runs was earned, the other crossing the plate as the result of one of four errors committed by his mates. But at most times of stress, the Paul players, particularly shortstop Bobby Shreves helped their veteran mound ace with support of the most sensational nature.

Shreves ranged far into the outfield after pop flies, came up with some really spectacular fields and throws of tough infield rollers. He bobbled once in the first inning then garnered in eight fielding chances without sign of another misplay. In addition he poled a first inning triple that sent teammate Jimmy Baxes scooting across the plate with one of the winners' runs.

Federals lost a possible chance to knot the count by twice trying to score from third base on easy rollers to that side of the diamond, becoming easy victims at the plate. Ray White who walked with one out in the second, and went to third on Gill's double tried to score on Amaral's roller to third and went down with several feet to spare. "Red" Walsh started the Federal seventh with a triple past center field, was nipped at the plate a few minutes later on Spencer's roller to Shreves at short.

Baxes who maced a double and single was the only other Paul's batter to secure more than one hit. Walsh with a triple and two singles accounted for three of Federal's seven bingles.

Hurley Marines combined all their scoring in three innings. In the first they secured three runs on one hit, when Smith, Longshoremen pitcher walked the first two men to face him, and an error by Rose on an intended sacrifice allowed one run to cross. Tacheira, Hurley third baseman walloped a double for two more runs a minute or two later.

In the fourth, the visitors batted around to score four runs. Vanier's single, Spina's boot of Tacheiraas roller, and a walk to Bradford loaded the bases. Pitcher Morrie Ayala promptly unloaded them when he smacked a triple to the deepest corner of left field. Pacheco's single to center admitted Ayala.

Two more Hurley runs crossed the plate in the sixth on a combination of circumstances that included three singles, a walk and a hit batsman.

Ray Stagnaro, veteran right hander, replaced Smith on the mound in the seventh and set the visitors down without a hit in the last three innings.

Meanwhile the Longshoremen collected nine hits off Ayala, and managed to score four runs, one in the first, two in the fourth, and one in the ninth, in spite of a definite lack of hustle on the part of certain individual members of the team.

Smith secured three of the nine hits, all singles. Frank Guglimetti and Ray Spina poled two singles each. Eddie Rose and Manager Harry Maloney collected one hit each, also good for one base each.

Dismal showing of the Longshoremen against a team, that while it proved its right to be classed as one of the best of the East Bay nines, and deserves consilerable credit for its victory Sunday, nevertheless was one that could have been taken easily by former Longshoremen nines—all this caused many fans who saw the game to shake their heads with disgust and wonder to themselves "Where are those great Longshoremen teams of the past?"

S. F. Palomino Club Entertains Soldiers At Dibble Hospital

The Palomino club of San Francisco participated with other horse groups Sunday, July 29 at a show put on for convalescents at the Dibble hospital in Menlo Park.

The club consists of 20 members. Each member owns a beautiful palomino and each saddle is valued at from $1500 to $2000.

The club received a cup for their last participation at a show at Pescadero, recently, sponsored by the Native Sons and Daughters.

Civil Service Jobs Are Open In S. M. County

There are seven vacancies on the payroll of San Mateo county, the county civil service commission announced Monday.

One of the positions open is for one month only. This is a deputy sheriff's job and pays $220.

Other vacancies to be filled are:

Chief of communicable diseases (applicant must be a doctor of medicine to qualify)—$320 month; engineering draftsman — $220 month; assistant assessment engineer—$210 monthly; assistant veterans' service officer — $200 monthly; public health analyst—$190 monthly; and stenographer clerk—$130 monthly. These rates of pay include the $20 monthly war bonus and are for a 38-hour week.

Anyone interested in these jobs may obtain further information by contacting the county civil service commission at Redwood City.

Shades of '49 Horses Block Daly City Sidewalks

Two Bayview men learned last week, a telephone pole is no place to tie horses—especially when it is in the heart of Daly City and at a spot where horses can block a muchly used sidewalk.

Thursday afternoon, July 26, Charles Raggi of 1315 Galvez avenue, and Walter Bahnheim of 1377 Galvez avenue rode into Daly City and tied their horses to a pole just above Mission street, on Wellington avenue, while they went to a nearby restaurant to eat.

The horses decided they preferred the sidewalk to the street, and backed on to the narrow walk, blocking it for pedestrians, who turned in complaints at the nearby City Hall.

Sergeant Ricco Benedetti and Bert Silicani took the horses to the rear of the city hall, and when the owners came after them, they were reprimanded, told not to tie them where they would block foot traffic any more, and given their animals.

Announce Cut In Milk Supply

San Mateo county will be affected by another cut in civilian milk and cream supplies during August, Market Agent E. L. Vehlow of the United States Department of Agriculture announced this week.

Dairies will be permitted to sell to civilians 105 per cent of milk sold during the base period of June, 1943 and 80 per cent of cream, during the coming month. The quota for July was 110 per cent of milk and 99 per cent of cream.

Hog Ranchers

Rossi, Daly City; Emil Lombardi, no address; Hugo Paoli, Daly City; J. Isola, Millbrae; J. Lamori, C. Agreasti, R. Agreasti and D. Malatucci (no address given for last four); Ernest Martini, David Petroni and Salvatore Frugali, Daly City; G. Barbano, South San Francisco and Joe Lunghi, Daly City; Julio Palolo, Daly City; Gino Paolo, Daly City; Leo Giambastiani, South San Francisco and Frank Giambastiani, Daly City; James M. Callan and James J. Callan, Colma; John Castagnetto, Colma.

Judge Rapsey has indicated he will set bail for the various defendants as follows:

Two hundred fifty dollars cash for defendants named alone; $150 cash each for ranchers named as co-defandants; and $100 cash each for the few named in complaints listing four or five others as co-defendants.

Maximum penalty is $500 fine and six months in jail.

None of the ranchers have indicated what legal defense they will offer, but they have two resources open to them:

1. Attack the constitutionality of the county ordinance.

2. Ask the superior court for a mandamus writ requiring the supervisors to issue permits or show cause.

Meanwhile a suggested solution of the problem is the establishment of a "Palace Hotel for pigs," a modern, sanitary, cooperative hog center, in some remote area of the county, at which all ranchers could join in raising their pigs. This scheme was broached a few months ago, but reportedly fell through at that time because of the opposition of one of the county's largest ranchers.

The South San Francisco city council has taken action in the matter by voting at a recent meeting to have City Clerk Daniel McSweeney forward a letter to Foreman Glenn O. Smallcomb of the county grand jury requesting that body take some action in the matter.

A copy of this letter follows:

"Mr. G. O. Smallcomb, chairman, grand jury of San Mateo county:

"Dear Sir:

I am writing you at the request of the City Council of the City of South San Francisco with reference to the pollution of Colma creek. This stream originates in the mountains west of South San Francisco and flows easterly down through South San Francisco. Large numbers of hogs are raised on ranches located on sloping land which drains into Colma creek. All of these ranches are situated outside South San Francisco. The operation of these hog ranches causes large quantities of filth to accumulate in Colma creek and pass through an area adjacent to residential property. The stench arising at this time of year is an unbearable annoyance to people who reside in the vicinity of that stream. Residents of South San Francisco should not have to suffer because of conditions which exist outside of this city. This nuisance has continued for many years. Although complaints have been made at various times about the nuisance, it still continues. Unless something is done to prevent the nuisance, those who are responsible for its existence will persist in causing pollution of Colma creek. There is no excuse whatever for this condition.

"The city council requests the Grand jury to investigate this situation and endeavor to get it eradicated.

"Assuring you that the city council of South San Francisco will appreciate your efforts toward that end, I am

Respectively,

Daniel McSweeney, city clerk."

LOST RATION BOOKS FOUND

If any local residents know the present address of the Joseph Bradford family, who moved from 298 Miriam street about a month ago, they are asked to contact the local police department.

That department now has three No. Four ration books issued to members of the Bradford family. These books were recently found on the street by a sailor and turned in to the local station.

Measles Causes Young Patient A Bit of Trouble

Honesty of the mother, Mrs. Willard Jones of 239 Peoria street, in reporting that other children of the family had the measles, resulted in two year old David Jones having to be taken to an isolation ward in Community hospital last week, instead of being treated at Mary's Help hospital in San Francisco.

Young David was brought to the office of Dr. W. C. Lynch for treatment of an infected eye, Friday evening, July 27. He was first taken to Mary's Help hospital for treatment, but that hospital refused to accept the case when they learned of the measles cases in the family.

Mrs. Hughes of the San Mateo County Welfare department was then called into the case, and she made arrangements for the boy to be taken to Community hospital. Officer Dean Wood took the boy there in a local police car, Mrs. Jones accompanying the officer and her son.

La Honda Mission Fete Set

Annual open-air military memorial mass, for California's dead fighters, highpoint of the colorful La Honda Mission Festival, in San Mateo county's "Cathedral of the Redwoods," otherwise known as La Cuesta Bowl, will feature this year's sixth annual Mission Festival, on Sunday, August 12. The military mass, in the picturesque setting, will be said at 10:30 o'clock in the morning and the rest of the day given over to entertainment and sporting events. Thousands of visitors annually visit La Honda for the Mission Festival, which, open to people of all faiths, is sponsored by distinguished Californians in behalf of the Catholic Coastside Missions. Naval and California State Guard dress battalion units will serve as escorts of honor during the impressive services. Pictured is the scene in the "Cathedral of the Redwoods" at the fifth festival. Chairman of the event is San Francisco's Judge Leo A. Cunningham.

Few, If Any, New Liquor Licenses To Be Granted Locally

A recent ruling by the California State Legislature limiting the number of liquor licenses to one for every 1000 population makes it appear as if persons seeking new licenses would be out of luck—and very probably those places whose licenses have been revoked for any reason recently.

At present San Mateo county has a total of 730 licensed off-sale and on-sale establishments. Of these 262 are on-sale places where beer, wine and distilled liquors are sold by the drink to be consumed on the premises.

The 1940 census showed the population of San Mateo county as 111,782. Present population as estimated by the Bureau of Elections is 170,066. Taking the higher estimated population as a basis, there are 92 more on-sale licenses in the county than allowed by the recent legislative ruling.

As a result, George R. Reilley, member of the board of equalization from this district, has indicated he will issue no more new licenses in this county until the number of existing establishments drop to a total of 170.

Daughter Born To Lt. and Mrs. Cook

First Lieutenant and Mrs. Fletcher Cook are the proud parents of a daughter born Sunday, July 29. The baby has been named Victoria Louise.

Lieutenant Cook is the son of Mrs. Louise T. Cook, chief clerk in the water works collection department of Daly City. He has been stationed at Fort Bragg, North Carolina since January, 1944.

Bethel Girls Tie In Radio Contest

Four girls representing San Francisco Bethels Order of Job's Daughters contested with four girls from Hollywood Bethels in the "Quiz of Two Cities" program on Station KFRC, Saturday, July 28.

The four girls from the San Francisco area were Florence Rowlands, San Bruno, Bethel 26; Barbara McClymond, Bethel 3; Jean Fiske, Bethel 37; and Phyllis Pabst, Bethel 107.

The score was tied at the end of the program, and the participants voted to donate the awards to the Braille Institute for the Blind.

Officer Bitten

turn told by the proprietor that he could not have any more drinks and would have to leave. Jones is then said to have replied that an officer would have to put him out.

Beecher then ordered the two men to leave, but the younger Jones continued to protest vehemently and was taken in tow by Officers Roy and Edward Beecher. Brought to the police station, he refused to go into the desk sergeant's office and continued to resist the officers. In the ensuing scuffle, the glass in the Honor Roll was broken and Jones bit Officer Roy Beecher on teh left arm just above the elbow.

After getting Jones in the "cooler' the officer went to Alemany hospital to have his arm treated.

Brought before Judge Sweeney, the following morning, Jones was released on $100 bail and his trial set for August 3. However, he appeared at the July 27 police court session, saying he was slated for a pre-induction physical by the Daly City draft board in a few days, and wanted to get this matter settled.

Pleading guilty to the charges of disturbing the peace and being drunk in a public place, Jones was fined $50 by Judge Sweeney, which he paid. He also agreed to pay $7.25 for a new pane of glass in the Honor Roll.

Manslaughter Case Number Two Slated For County Courts

San Mateo county courts now have another manslaughter case on their hands, following death of John Fenzl, South San Francisco resident Friday night, July 27 in Community hospital, from injuries suffered in a three car collision on Bayshore highway near Brisbane, Monday, July 23.

Mrs. Opal Mae Stivers, driver of the car in which Fenzl was a passenger, was booked at the San Mateo county jail on a felony drunk driving charge following the accident, which also injured six other persons, and is still being held, following failure to raise a $1000 cash bail.

County authorities Saturday indicated that charges against Mrs. Stivers would be changed to manslaughter, following Fenzl's death.

Two important new railroad travel restrictions have been ordered by the U. S. Office of Defense Transportation.

Under O.D.T. Order #52, you cannot reserve a train berth or seat more than five days in advance.

Under O. D. T. Order #53, all Pullman sleeping cars operating for 450 miles or less have been discontinued.

How you are affected by new O. D. T. Travel Rules

These two orders apply to all railroads. Admittedly, they are drastic—but vitally necessary. Additional sleeping cars must be made available for veterans returning from Europe for discharge or for redeployment to the Pacific.

While these regulations will cause some inconvenience, we feel sure everyone will approve the effort to serve better the men from overseas to whom we owe so much. We know that the families of boys who are coming home will have no question as to the merits of the orders.

As far as Southern Pacific is concerned, our guiding principle has been "the military comes first," and we are cooperating one hundred percent in carrying out the O. D. T. orders—in letter, and in spirit.

With nearly twenty thousand S. P. men and women in the armed forces, we, too, have a real and personal interest in the welfare and comfort of service men and women.

Fishing Facts For Fishin' Fools

Weather is very warm in San Joaquin county, according to reports to the Outing Department of the National Automobile club, and not many fishermen are out. Several flocks of young valley quail have been noted in this area and several bunches of young pheasant are in the Natomas rice district.

Reports coming in from Calaveras and Alpine counties say that the East Carson has afforded good fishing recently. Wolf creek has been fair, but this stream has been fished heavily the past two years. Kenney Highland and Alpine Lakes are fair. The Mokelumne river and Deer creek are good, but the water from Blue lake will soon be turned in which will slow down fishing. The Stanislaus river has produced good fishing. Black bass fishermen on Salt Spring valley are taking bass up to 6½ pounds with plugs. Catfishing is fair.

From reports, fishing is not very good on the streams in Amador county, as they are now very low. Lake fishing has picked up a little, but is not as good as it should be for this time of year. Bucks and fawns in appreciable numbers have been noted between Silver lake and Pine Grove. A few valley quale are along the foothills.

Deer seem to be quite plentiful in El Dorado county and in good condition. The Placer county area reports that about the only good fishing to be had is in the streams and lakes of the back country. Pheasants seem to be plentiful in the district between Lincoln and Pleasant Grove. The quail hatch looks fair in Yuba county.

Fishermen in Butte county are wondering where their large mouth bass have gone. For the past four years not too many good catches have been made in the lakes and sloughs where limit catches were common. Catfish fishermen wonder why District 12A could not be abolished. They say there are hundreds of people fishing for catfish and getting a lot of pleasure out of it and they think the commercial catch can't be so great that it would offset the pleasure and recreation hook and line fishermen get. From reports, fishermen in Plumas county are not doing so well except in small mountain streams in the back country. There are lots of bucks in all sections of this county, all in good condition.

Eagles Initiate 29 New Members In Month of July

Members of Colma-Vista Grande Aerie No. 1848, Fraternal Order of Eagles really went to town in their membership drive honoring the memories of two of their brothers who have given their lives in the service of our country —Richard Bolger of the U. S. Marines and Joseph Leveroni of the U. S. Armv.

Led by Worthy Treasurer Otto A. Schramm and Louis P. Warchot who each "coralled" five new members, the local aerie initiated a total of 29 candidates during July. Worthy Secretary William P. Bolger was close behind his two brothers in the matter of securing new members, accounting for four. Outside guard E. James Smith and F. C. Britton brought in three each.

Other brothers who brought in one candidate each were: Inside Guard Stephen Passafiume, John M. Griffith, Halvard Hansen, Thomas Tromborg, Frank Rehe, David Cafferata, William Thompson, William F. Kelley and James J. Poket.

In addition to 15 candidates from Daly City and Colma, the group included five from San Francisco, three from San Bruno and one from San Mateo, as well as five merchant seamen from Denver, Colorado, all of whom are now stationed in this area and use a local address for their mailing addresses.

The new brothers are:

Alfred Edward Jones, 6726 Mission St., Daly City; Robert J. Spark, 316 Lowell St., Daly City; Robert Sick, 622 Cordova St., San Francisco; Duncan H. Bly, 6290 Mission St., Daly City; Kai C. Tonnesen, 778 Templeton Ave., Daly City; Hagop Hagopian, 149 Downey St., San Francisco; Andrew Van Der Werff, 1135 Brunswick St., Daly City; George L. Lagomarsino, Route 1, Colma; William R. Smith, 951 Angus Ave., San Bruno; Joseph A. Howarth, 235 Castro St., San Francisco; Roy H. Burkett, 1249 Geneva Ave., San Francisco; William K. Shiver, 69 Mizpah St., San Francisco; Algie T. Shawbee, U. S. A. B./P. D., San Bruno; Frank J. Garcia, 168 Los Banos Ave., Daly City; William B. Brandt, 473 Knowles Ave., Daly City; Walton H. Sharp, 461 Knowles Ave., Daly City; John J. Donahue, 139 Moltke St., Daly City; Paul Siragusa, 94 Theta Ave., Daly City; John Ward Moyle, U. S. N. A. P. D., San Bruno; Vincent J. Aiello, 6207 B Mission St., Daly City; William Byrne, 39 San Pedro Ave., Daly City; Homer Dale Anderson, 102 S. Fremont St., San Mateo; Salvador F. Matorana, 6605 Mission St., Daly City; Keith H. McGowen, 360 San Diego Ave., Daly City and the five merchant seamen Clarence Sweeney, Everett M. Bush, Leon F. Hill, William F. Shaball, and Stanley J. Stefanski.

Police Officer Finds Lost Child

While on patrol duty at the Mission street-Hillcrest drive intersection Monday afternoon, July 30, Officer Dean Wood of the local police department observed three year old Lynn Anderson wandering around apparently lost. Officer Wood located the child's mother, Mrs. Veronica Anderson of 285 Los Banos avenue, and turned the youngster over to her.

Nutrients of Spices

Most spices rate low in nutrients, but paprika and chili are reported to be exceptions. The former, a red spice from a mild-flavored pod pepper, rates high in vitamin A. Chili powder, now 10th on the list of spices, according to the amount consumed, also offers plenty of vitamin but lacks the C that is present in fresh and canned chili peppers.

Marines Lose 3 to 2 Game With Moffett Fliers

San Francisco U. S. Marines were knocked out of future competition in the weird "Shaughnessy" playoffs for 12th Naval District National League championship at Marchbanks park Wednesday afternoon, when they were nosed out by Moffet Field Fliers 3 to 2.

While the Marines, who won the National League's Northern Division race were battling the Fliers, second place team in the Southern half of the league, here, Coast Guard Fliers of San Mateo, Southern section winners were playing Vallejo Dynamiters, Northern section runnersup at Vallejo. Both these affairs were one game "sudden death" businesses with the winners slated to meet in a best two out of three game series next week for the league championship.

Marine batters were almost powerless against the cunning right hand slants of "Tommy" Thompson, Moffett Field hurler. Only two of their six hits were to the outfield, four of them being infield scratches. And all told, they hit only three balls to the outfield.

Second baseman "Buddy" Freese dropped a home run on top of the embankment above the short left field corner in the seventh inning. With two out in the ninth, utility catcher Jenkins, pinchhitting, drove a three base hit between the right and center fielders. In the fifth inning pitcher Mike Duplinsky flied out to left field.

Thompson struck out 13 Marines and issued two bases on balls. Duplinsky was nicked for nine hits by Moffett Field batters, fanned ten, walked one and hit one.

Moffett Field started the scoring early. Thompson, leading off the batting order, cracked Duplinsky's first pitch against the right center field wall for two bases, moved up on an infield out and scored on Bracken's single.

The Marines tied it up in their half of the first. Bob Tschida bunted down the third base line, beat the throw for a hit, and continued to second as third sacker Russell's throw went high over the first baseman's head. Norris moved him up with an infield out and Miller rapped a line drive over second, that Tozzo got to but couldn't hold, Tschida rambling across.

In the second inning, Tozzo found the short left field corner and dropped one on the embankment for the circuit. The visitors scored the eventual winning run in the first half of the seventh on some loose play on the part of the Marines. With two out, Lloyd reached first when first baseman Kozielski couldn't handle third baseman Starks bounce throw. He went to second on a wild pitch and scored when left fielder Joe Couvillion let Labonte's easy fly fall behind him for a double.

Freese's home run put the Marines back in the ball gaame, and Jenkins' triple in the ninth revived local hopes of at least a tie. But Freese this time popped out to shortstop Ryan and the game was over.

This game may end the Marines' season—Coach Sgt. Don McShane would not definitely indicate Wednesday whether he intended playing any more or not. At that time McShane seemed to be disgusted over failure of some of his players breaking training rules in the past week, also at the series of bad breaks suffered by his club recently.

Last week he lost two of his regulars. Ed Russell, hard-hitting right fielder was transferred to San Diego, preparatory to being shipped overseas, and Leroy Goodale, regular third baseman, went home on a leave, before also heading for overseas duty.

The weird playoff series between the two sections of the league designed by 12th Naval District officials, which forced the Marines, champions of the Northern section, to play Moffett Field, second place team in the Southern half in a "sudden death" one game affair, instead of going directly into a three game series with Coast Guard FFliers, Southern section champions, didn't help the morale of either McShane or his players any either.

Florida Take Notice

Weather records for 25 years reveal that the North Carolina coast has the same amount of sunshine that Florida does.

Surf Riders Take Close One From Coast Guard Pilots

Coast Guard Surf Riders and Coast Guard Pilots, rival Bay and Powell street nines from the 12th Naval District's American League staged one of the most interesting baseball games ever played here at Marchbanks park Friday afternoon, July 27.

Surf Riders won 7 to 6, but had to stop a last inning rally by the Pilots that scored three runs, had the tying run on third, and a potential winning run on first when the last out was made.

Daring baserunning by the Surf Riders in early innings; the stout hearted pitching of Tom Kipp, their left handed mound ace, especially in that hectic last half inning; and great support in the field at most times by Surf Rider players featured the game.

There was enough hard hitting in the game to satisfy any fan. Surf Riders collected ten hits, and Pilots 12—the bingles including a triple to the steps back of center field by French, Surf Rider center fielder and doubles by Bob Patterson of the Surf Riders and Horn and Bertelotti of the Pilots.

There were any number of sensational fielding plays. Surf Riders uncorked three double plays and Pilots one, all at critical moments. Rifle throwing of Eddie Gibb, Surf Rider catcher and ex-Newark International leaguer, who collected five assists from behind the plate, helped Kipp materially in early innings. Gibb threw out two would-be base thieves, and caught two others off their bases with his rifle pegs.

In the middle of all this sensational play, scorekeepers had to record one of the most peculiar plays ever seen anywhere, a 6-9-4 which means shortstop to right field to second base in baseball shorthand. This play came up in the Pilots' first inning. With one out, Kipp walked Bertelotti McMichael, the next batter, hoisted a high pop fly back of second base. "Bing" Cosbey, Surf Rider manager went back after the ball, got his hands on it, but dropped it. Mike Samaduroff, former Longshoreman, playing right field for the Surf Riders, picked up the ball and tossed it to Lieutenant Byrne at second base in time for the force on Bertelotti.

Surf Riders got off in the lead when Patterson's double, a double steal with Patterson scoring, and a steal of home later in the inning by Samaduroff netted them two runs in the second.

Emlen Tunnell, negro right hander for the Pilots, walked two of the first three Surf Riders to face him in the third. Cosbey and Patterson combed singles and Gibb forced Patterson at second, all of which netted three more tallies.

Horn's double, a sacrifice and an infield out produced one for the Pilots in the last of the third. Surf Riders added another in the sixth on Baptist's single and French's Triple, but Pilots got it back in the last half of the same canto on Bertelotti's double, an outfield fly, and Gorman's one-bagger.

The winners scored their seventh tally in the seventh, when McDonald singled, was wild pitched to second, and crossed on Cosbey's one base drill into left field.

Singles by Knowles and Gorman wrapped around a base on balls produced another Pilot tally in the eighth, a slight warning perhaps of what was coming in the last half of the ninth.

Chicourat, Pilot second baseman opened this hectic canto with a low, hard line drive that hit Kipp on the right ankle. The Surf Rider hurler, noticeably shaken by the accident, nevertheless managed to stay in the game after a few minutes time out. He seemed to be as strong as ever as he fanned one man, caused the next batter to hoist to center field, but got himself in the hole by walking Tunnell.

Knowles' high pop back of second should have ended the game, but Byrne dropped the ball, Chicourat racing across the plate. Kipp walked Bertelotti to fill the bases, and McMichael hit another high one back of first, that McDonald let fall for a base hit, Tunnell and Knowles crossing the plate aand Bertelotti racing to third. At this spot, Kipp evidently decided the foolishness had gone far enough for he turned on the heat, to whiff Herb Gorman Brooklyn National League first sacker, to wind up the contest.

Second Half Of Summer League Gets Under Way

Paul's Fountain and Western Pipe and Steel, two of the "also rans" in the first half of the Managers' Summer League, have shown definite indications in the first two weeks of the last half race, they will be the teams to beat. Frank Newmans, first half champions, and Gordon Realtors, runnersup, are also racing at the top of the second half standing with two victories aand no defeats each. All of which presages a hot race among these four teams, before the present schedule comes to an end in September.

Western Pipe and Steel followed their resounding victory of two weeks ago over Young Christian Workers by taking Laundry Workers into camp Sunday 5 to 2. Paul's Fountain followed their 1 to 0 victory over Grosso Music two weeks ago with a well-earned 4 to 2 decision over Federal Outfitters at Marchbanks park Sunday.

Newmans continued undefeated in the second half by banging 17 hits off Warren Jenkins of Campi Tavern for a 14 to 4 decision Sunday. Second baseman Baiocchi, and pitcher Jim Lowman led the Newman attack with three hits each as Lowman set Campi batters down with six safeties.

Gordon Realtors set Shipfitters down 9 to 1 as Ted Coffey permitted four hits and collected two himself. In the other game, Grosso Music easily downed Regal Pales 15 to 1, second baseman Miller Allison securing four hits.

Feature of next Sunday's five game schedule may be the contest between Newmans and Western Pipe and Steel on the Big Rec No. 1 diamond at 12:15. This contest could develop into a hurler's duel between Lowman of Newmans and Jerry Tamalier of Western Pipe and Steel.

Paul's Fountain tackles Young Christian Workers at the same time on No. 2 diamond at Big Rec. Gordon Realtors face Regal Pales in the 12 o'clock game at Marchbanks park which should be easy for Coffey and his mates unless Regals show a decided reversal of form.

Other games slated for Sunday are:

Federal Outfitting Co. vs. Grosso Musics at Big Rec No. 2—2:30; Laundry Workers vs. Campi's Tavern at Big Rec No. 1—2:30. Shipfitters draw the bye.

Two Polio Cases Now Reported In San Mateo County

The dread polio or infantile paralysis made its first appearance in San Mateo county last week, when two young San Mateo boys entered Community hospital for treatment for the disease.

The two boys, neighbors, went into a flower pool which had been converted into a wading pool, hospital reports indicated. One has been definitely classed as having polio, the other as a suspected case.

Dr. Charles Gans, San Mateo county health officer this week issued a warning against conversion of fish ponds and flower pools into wading or swimming pools, and also cautioned against use of private swimming or wading pools unless a test of the water has been made by county health authorities.

Other safeguards urged by Dr. Gans are:

"Do not wade or swim if you have a cold, sore throat, other illness or any skin disease.

"Do not go into any stream or creek until you contact the health department to ascertain if the water has been tested and given official approval."

Meanwhile Santa Cruz county health officials have closed the two girl scout camps at Big Basin, following discovery of an infantile paralysis case last week at one of the camps. The victim, a 14 year old Hayward girl is now in a San Francisco hospital.

Although some San Mateo county girl scouts used the Big Basin camps for summer outings it is not believed any girls from Daly City or vicinity were at either of the two places. Local girl scouts have their own camp, Monte Toyon in the mountains east of Colma.

Roaches Like to Hide

To combat the roach we must know something of its habits. They are nocturnal and go into hiding during the daylight hours. They prefer to hide in quiet, darkened and sheltered places. They hide near sinks, drainboards, behind wall cabinets, under loose door and window trim, cracks and holes in the walls, along water and steam pipes, beneath flooring, in wall spaces and in dark food storage rooms and bins. Knowing the hiding places of these pests, a permanent method of control is obtained by eliminating these hiding places by sealing the openings.

Sun Needed by Herbs

When grown indoors in window box or in flower pots, herbs do best in a south window where they get plenty of sunlight.

Burlingame Fire Causes Arrest Of Property Owner

Death of Mrs. Lillian Rohrs, 31 year old mother, and employee of Dalmo-Victor Co., and William J. McDaniels, 26 year old U. S. Naval cadet, in a fire which last week destroyed a makeshift garage apartment at 1100-a Lincoln avenue, in the Broadway section of Burlingame, has resulted in a series of charges and countercharges that have caused considerable furore in Burlingame municipal circles over the past week.

A special meeting called by Mayor Peter J. Dahl Friday night, and attended by the city council, fire commissioners, building inspectors, water department officialas, and key police and fire department officials, absolved all city officials of blame in connection with the fire, but held Mrs. Adele Prescott, owner of the building criminally responsible.

Burlingame building inspectors testified at the meeting that Mrs. Prescott had been ordered to cease using the building as living quarters on April 15, 1937, but that recently she had again done so without securing their permission, a violation of the state housing act.

Meanwhile James Watson, Burlingame building inspector, last week swore out a warrant for Mrs. Prescott's arrest, charging her with violation of the city's zoning ordinance in maintaining two residence properties on one property in a zone restricted to one residence per property.

Later Mrs. Prescott issued a statement in which she said, "I never promised to cease renting the property as a dwelling and city officials are invading my rights when accusing me of guilt at a public meeting."

Criminal action against Mrs. Prescott has been deferred pending findings at the inquest for which no date has yet been announced by Coroner Wm. J. Crosby. However, Burlingame city officials expressed intentions of conducting a thorough investigation to determine whether there were any buildings of similar nature now being used as residential property in the city, and whether nature of their construction made them "firetraps."

Monday of this week, Burlingame officials arrested Mrs. Prescott and booked her on a charge of violating the building code. She first posted $100 bail, later appeared before Police Judge Allen Ward, and plead guilty to the charge. Judge Ward fined her $300 and placed her on one year's probation with strict instruction not to rent the 1100-a Lincoln avenue property for living quarters during that period.

South City Judge Endorses Secession Move of Township

Proposed secession moves of northern San Mateo county residents whereby First Township would detach itself from San Mateo county and probably annex to San Francisco, received a "shot in the arm" recently when City Judge S. K. Robbins of South San Francisco, although denying he was a participant in the secession move, endorsed it with the following statement:

"They (San Mateo county officials) are letting us down. I can't understand why the district attorney's office hasn't taken some action against the Colma hog ranchers who are polluting Colma creek.

"North county leaders have reached the point where they're tired of talking about this situation and are going to get some action."

Meanwhile City Attorney J. W. Coleberd of South San Francisco expressed disbelief in the secession movement, saying he never heard of it, and intimating the reports probably originated in San Francisco municipal circles.

The move has already been urged by Supervisor Adolph Uhl of San Francisco.

World's Largest Hatchery

According to the records of the USDA, the largest hatchery in the United States is at Vineland, N. J., where 1,500,000 eggs can be hatched at one time.

MRS. AMERICA MEETS THE WAR . . .

Early in 1946 Mrs. America will be using a new ration book, War Ration Book Five will be distributed through the schools early in December, and will go into use soon after the first of the year. The new book will be half the size of the present book and contain just half as many stamps. It will have red stamps for buying meats and fats, blue stamps for processed foods, sugar stamps, shoe stamps, and spare stamps. The new book will be more convenient to carry because of its smaller size, smaller than a dollar bill. The numbering and arrangement of stamps is more convenient, too.

A new "A" gasoline book will be distributed at the same time. It will be like the present book, but a different color. The first stamps to be used in the new book will become good on December 22.

These books are being planned now, because it takes a long time to print and distribute them. War Ration Book Five is being set up so that, if necessary, it can be made to last from 10 to 15 months. Of course, rationing of food, shoes and gasoline will be discontinued as soon as possible, but from the way things look now, there still won't be a large enough supply of rationed commodities in 1946 to insure everyone getting his fair share without some control.

A new set of red and blue stamps in War Ration Book Four have been validated for the month of August. For meats and fats, red stamps F1 through K1 are now good, and for processed foods, blue stamps, P1 through T1 are now good. They will be good for four months . . . until the end of November. Sugar Stamp 36 will continue to be good for five pounds of sugar through August 31.

Mrs. America no longer needs a certificate from her local War Price and Rationing Board to buy a gas stove or gas heating stove. More of these stoves are scheduled to be manufactured during the next three months, so rationing of them is no longer necessary. Because the suply of fuel oil and kerosene is so short, rationing of oil cooking, oil heating, combination oil-gas stoves and oil conversion burners for stoves will continue.

More laundry soap is in sight. The Department of Agriculture has anounced production of household "heavy duty" laundry-type soaps will be increased by ten per cent. In addition, Army requirements for soap will be lower during the coming six months. These two factors should result in a substantial increase in the amount of soap available for civilians. The housewife should buy only what she needs. Since there will be plenty of soap for everyone, hoarding is a silly costly practice and entirely unwarranted.

To those mothers who may be worried lest their children are not getting enough meat in their diet, the Department of Labor gives the assurances of its nutritionists that other foods used in the right combination will supply meat nutrients, chief of which is high-quality protein. The protein found in low-point meats such as liver sausage, frankfurters, tongue and canned luncheon meat compares favorably with that found in a prime rib roast. If, however, the butcher's counter is bare, the protein a child needs can be supplied through milk, all kinds of cheese, eggs, fish and dried beans and peas.

A Land of Contrasts

Our nearest Latin American neighbor, Mexico, is a land of contrasts—jungles, mountains and plateaus. Mining is the principal industry of a nation one-fourth the size of the U. S. Petroleum, agriculture and stock raising are also important.

"OFF THE BLOTTER"

While on patrol duty at 4:30 a. m., Thursday, July 26, Officers Roland Petrocchi and Dean Wood of the local police, found Mary Lowe, 56 year old woman, living at 3526 24th street, San Francisco, lying in the gutter along Junipero Serra boulevard just north of School street. Obviously bewildered, and apparently somewhat under the influence of liquor, she told the officers an incoherent story of having been taken there and thrown out of a car by an unnamed man and woman.

The officers took her to the local station, and called the San Francisco department. An officer of that department came out and took her to her home.

* * *

Investigating ownership of an Olds sedan that had been left parked in the 7300 block of Mission street for several days, local police learned that it belonged to Miss Alice Waite of 299 Missouri street, San Francisco.

Saturday morning, July 28, at 7 o'clock, the local department contacted Miss Waite by phone and told her to remove the car or they would impound it at a local garage.

Miss Waite said her father had been in Daly City looking for the car, but had been unable to find it. She promised the officers to remove it sometime Saturday. No explanation as to why the car had been left there in the first place was given.

C. Jastrumski of 116 Los Olivos avenue, appeared at the local police station Sunday, July 29, at 1:30 p. m. to ask aid in having his five and a half year old son, Gerald, taken to Community hospital.

The boy had cut his hand on a piece of glass, and had been taken to Alemany hospital for emergency treatment by the father. Officials at the Alemany hospital requested the boy be taken to Community for further treatment.

At 2:15 p. m. Officer Dean Wood took the boy to Community hospital in a local police car.

Officer Henry Sunderman jr. of the Daly City police department responded to two calls during the past week from local women who had injured themselves and needed medical treatment—with one of the calls being from his own mother.

Shortly after 1:30 Sunday afternoon, July 29, Sundermann took his mother rs. Pauline Sundermann of 522 Winchester street to Alemany hospital for emergency treatment for an injured finger. Mrs. Sundermann had injured her finger in opening a window.

Friday, July 27, at 3:45 p. m., Sundermann removed Mrs. C. H. Wright from her home at 369 Knowles avenue to Dr. Budaeff's office for treatment for a sprained ankle. Mrs. Wright had sprained the ankle in a fall at her home, and, unable to secure a cab, had called the local police office as a last resort. The injury was only a slight one, and Mrs. Wright was able to return home after treatment.

Stork Outruns Ambulance Again

For the second time in the past week, the stork became impatient at the slowness of the ambulance service, Tuesday morning, July 31, and delivered a baby boy to Mrs. Vivian Jackson, wife of Adam Jackson of 701 Templeton avenue as Mrs. Jackson was waiting for an ambulance to take her to a hospital.

At 9:50 a. m. Tuesday, Jackson called the local police officer and asked that an ambulance be sent to the home. The local officers contacted Mrs. Hughes of the county welfare department, and she sent Ivah Eugina, a nurse at Colma health office to the Jackson home. The nurse then asked that the ambulance be sent to the home to take Mrs. Jackson to Community hospital.

In the meantime the stork arrived. After the baby was delivered, mother and son were taken to Community hospital in the ambulance and both are reported as doing fine.

Removing Iron Rust

If lemon juice is squeezed over spots of rust in iron water pails and dippers and allowed to stand several hours the rust can be removed. If one application fails to do the job, repeat.

Deer Hunting Should Be Good

Heavy logging in the Deer Creek district seems to have moved the deer back of Crater mountain in the Shasta area. The fawn crop is fairly good in that part of the country.

Over on the coast, Mendocino county hunters say that deer hunting in the large burns made last year around Willits and Laytonville should be good. They report lots of bucks in these areas. From reports, prospects for deer hunting in Sonoma county look good, but hunters are reminded that in this county there is no open ground on which to hunt. Permission to hunt should be obtained from the land owner. Much of the hunting lands is controlled by gun clubs. The outlook for deer season in San Mateo county is about normal. Most of the deer areas are posted. Bucks are in good shape, but many still in velvet.
